2014 year in review

What an exciting year 2014 turned out to be. The regular Canterbury Leagues Club Greek Night attendance was inspiring with capacity crowds for most of the year.

John Tikis once again returned with a new album and a great show to thrill fans and play several successful shows early in the year.

We had the distinct pleasure of working with some very talented singers including Mario, Carly, Irene, Steve and Christos.

Of special note was New Years Eve at Newcastle where the Greek community celebrated the start of 2015 with the band backing a stellar performance by the very talented Irene who made the night very special indeed.
